SKILLED BED HOLD

When Resident is sent out of the facility due to hospitalization at any time, Medicare/Medicaid does not pay the room and board. Resident or Representative may elect to pay the ongoing Medicaid room rate for the room, thus holding a bed until Resident returns. Payments must be made in (5) day increments within the first (24) hours of the hospital admission. There is no limit to how long the facility will continue to accept a payment for bed hold and Facility will never refuse any bed hold payment. Paying bed hold is solely the decision of Resident and/or Resident Representative. If, by chance, a hospitalization is (15) days or less and the bed was not held, the Facility will offer Resident the first available bed at the appropriate level of care required. Any refunds will be paid promptly if an advanced payment is not used.

Please stop by the social office if you or your loved one is missing any clothing or other personal items. Social will keep any lost or found items for one week. After one week items will be donated to someone in need or local charity. Please make sure you are taking clothing to laundry to be labeled before placing it in the closet.

Please help us feed our little friends by donating bird seeds.

THE END OF ALZHEIMER'S
